VOL. XXV, NO. 265 GAINESVILLE, FLORIDA, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 20, 1909 TEN CENTS A WEEK

A HUNDRED MILLION PUBLIC LAND GRAFT

Charged in Reports to Secretary Garfield---Some of the Lands in Florida.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 19.—Information of a startling character of alleged wholesale and astounding frauds upon the public lands has come into the possession of Secretary of Interior Garfield through special agents in the field.

The serious allegation is made that approximately $110,000,000 worth of lands in States principally west of the Mississippi river have been fraudulently acquired within the past two years by corporations and individuals.

With a view of recovering these lands Secretary Garfield sent yesterday letters to Chairmen Hale and Tawney of the Senate and House Appropriation Committees, respectively, asking for an additional appropriation of $500,000, which, if granted, with that already asked for will give the department $1,000,000 for that purpose.

It is said that there is reasonable prospect of recovering much of this alleged fraudulently acquired land if the appropriation is promptly made. It is also pointed out that while a million dollars may seem large it is not one per cent of the commercial value of the land which the Government may hope to recover.

Secretary Garfield also submits a statement of H. H. Schwartz, chief of the field service, showing over 32,000 distinct cases of alleged land frauds demanding further investigation. Among such cases awaiting investigation now pending, are 1,960 divided among Florida, Alabama and Mississippi.

COOPER CASE BEFORE PARDONING BOARD

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Jan. 19.—Notice has been served by the Board of Pardons that the application of Isaiah E. Cooper for pardon will be heard January 26.

This case is one of State-wide interest. Cooper was convicted five years ago, nearly six yaers ago, for the murder of J. H. Bowman, the town marshal of Punta Gorda. The evidence against Cooper was all circumstantial. The case has been before the Board of Pardons a number of times, but no disposition has ever been made of the matter and Cooper still remains in the DeSoto county jail. Since his conviction, death warrants have been issued three times for his execution, but it has probably been through the evidence produced before the Board of Pardons that these warrants were withdrawn each instance in time to save Cooper's neck. Gov. Gilchrist will be the third Governor to review the Cooper case, and the result of the hearing next week is awaited with considerable interest.

If its worth more to someone else than to you—no matter what it is—a want ad. will be a good investment.

OFF FOR BIG HUNT.

Gainesville Crowd to Famous Gulf Hammock.

A jolly crowd of Gainesville citizens, comprising E. A. O'Neill, E. K. Fagan, Lee Graham, J. W. McCollum, J. S. McDowall, Geo. P. Morris and W. J. McCormick departed yesterday for the wilds of Gulf Hammock, where they propose to go in camp and slaughter the game of that section for the next several days.

They go prepared for the trip, with all bedding, provisions and tents preparatory to having a jolly good time for the remainder of the week.

Mr. Morris was the only one of the crowd that did not resemble camp hunters, as he left the city with a white vest and neat button-hole boquet adorning himself, but it is said that he also had a pair of boots.

Death of Small Child.

News was received in the city yesterday of the death of the little child of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Crown, which occurred at their home at Rocky Point. The little girl, Elsie, had been ill only a short while, as she with her parents visited the city on Saturday. She died from pneumonia.

CABBAGE SHIPMENT SOON TO COMMENCE

SOME FEW CRATES NOW BEING MOVED FROM HERE.

By First of Month Shipments Will Run Into Carloads Daily—Good Prices Anticipated

The shipment of cabbage has commenced in this section and several crates are now being forwarded daily by the express company.

Heavy movement of this particular vegetable will not occur, however, until about the first of next month, when they will be going from this and other places by the carload every day.

There has been a larger number of acres planted in this section this year than for quite a while, and from the fact that the Northern markets are about exhausted of the vegetable farmers are anticipating good prices throughout the season.

Not only has the acreage been large around Gainesville, but all down the line there seems to be a large number of people that have planted heavy of cabbage, and the bulk of them will be moved from about the first to twentieth of next month.

It is to be hoped that the growers will all realize their expectations and make good on the crop.

NEWS FROM ALL PARTS OF FLORIDA

It is reported that Key West is soon to have another daily newspaper.

The American Tuberculosis Exhibition opens this week in Jacksonville. Friday will probably be the opening day. It is the first health show to be held in the State.

Pensacola's handsome new $500,000 hotel will be known as the San Carlos, which is typical of Pensacola and of Florida. The hotel has been leased for a period of fifteen years.

The Grand Lodge of Florida, Free and Accepted Masons, are in annual session in Jacksonville. The dedication of the new Masonic temple in that city will be one of the features of the meeting.

The Squier saw and planing mills at Palatka are fast nearing completion. The machinery and shafting is being placed in position. This mill will employ upwards of 100 men, and the average cut will be 45,000 feet per day.

Policeman Reed of the Pensacola police department has been suspended from service for a period of thirty days charged with striking a bluejacket from one of the torpedo boats with his club after the man had been handcuffed.

The enormous Irish potato crop in the potato belt, principally at Hastings, has almost all been planted, and in some of the fields the plants are well up out of the ground. If the mild weather continues the spring crop this year will be exceptionally early and fancy prices would prevail.

The Tampa police authorities are vigorously hunting for a counterfeiter who is flooding Tampa and vicinity with spurious coins, of the denomination of silver half and quarter-dollars. There have been quite a considerable number of these coins in circulation recently and the police are at a loss to know where they come from. The coins are very clever imitations of genuine money and in most instances would not be detected by a casual observer.

AT LEAST THIS BIG "OIL" FINE STICKS

U. S. Supreme Court Sustains Texas Court's Fine Amounting to $1,625,000.

WASHINGTON. D. C., Jan. 19.—The Supreme Court of the United States yesterday affirmed the decree of the State courts of Texas imposing a fine of $1,625,000 on the Waters-Pierce Oil Company of St. Louis and ousting it from the State on the charge of violating the Texas anti-trust law.

The court also sustained the action of the Texas State courts in the appointment of Robert J. Eckhardt as receiver and thus again decided against the company which sought to have sustained the action of the Federal court in appointing C. B. Dorchester at the instance of the company.

The decisions in the cases were unanimous.

One of the receivership cases came to the court on a writ of error from the Supreme Judicial District Court of Texas and the other from the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the fifth circuit, in both of which courts the decisions were favorable to the State. Robert J. Eckhardt was appointed receiver by the Travis county State court on the theory that such appointment was necessary to preserve the property of the company until the penalty imposed could be collected.

The Fine Not Too Heavy.

Justice Day in the decision discussed the contention that the fines imposed were excessive, saying that the business done in Texas by the company was very extensive and highly profitable, the property amounting to more than $40,000,000 and its dividends as high as 700 per cent per annum.

"Assuming," he said, "that the defendant was guilty of a violation of laws over a period of years and in transacting business upon so large a scale we are not prepared to say that there was want of due process of law in the penalties inmposed."

The action was begun in the State courts under the State anti-trust laws. The bill charged that the company had violated the State's laws every day through a conspiracy with the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, to control the oil business in Texas, but the company denied the charge and in addition contended that even if it had violated the law it was not amenable, because the business transacted was of an interstate character and therefore only subject to control by the United States authorities. The penalty was at the rate of $50 per day from that time on.

Will Don Suits of Cotton To Widen Staple's Use

ATLANTA, Jan. 19.—Some 400 delegates and officials of various branches of the Georgia Farmers' Union met in convention in the hall of the House of Representatives at the State Capitol, upon call of the national board of directors and of the Cotton Committee, appointed at the recent meeting held in New Orleans for the purpose of discussing and taking action upon the union warehouse problem, and attending to other matters of importance.

At the outset the warehouse question and other matters were placed in the hands of special committees for consideration and report.

One of the most interesting actions taken at the meeting was the passage of a resolution providing for the adoption of a uniform suit of cotton clothing, to be worn by farmers while at work on the farm. A committee will take the matter in hand for the purpose of perfecting the details.

union throughout the country fall in line with this new movement, and provide themselves with working suits of cotton cloth it is apparent that they will at once create a new and important use for their great product.

Right in line with this action was the passage of a resolution by unanimous vote to insist on and encourage the extension of the use of cotton in the manufacture of bags and bagging used in covering commercial packages.

The convention will be in session today and before it adjourns, will take some action probably on the question of the consolidation of the union warehouses of which there are now about 100 in Georgia. The warehouse movement is one of the most important features of the union's program.

At the same time with the convention the business agents of the country and the local unions over the State held their annual meeting in the Senate chamber for the purpose

Keystone Republicans Re-Elect Penrose Senator

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 19.—Boise Penrose was elected United States Senator for the third time by the Pennsylvania Legislature today. The House and Senate balloted separately today and will meet in joint convention tomorrow to canvass the vote.

Senator Penrose is popularly classed among the reactionaries of the United States Senate and his re-election is a blow to the reform element of the Republican party. He is now the head of the famous Quay machine which has so long dominated Pennsylvania politics, and is denounced by his enemies as a political half-brother of Platt and Depew. Senator Penrose was accused by President Roosevelt of being the revealer of the $5,000,000 conspiracy to thwart him and his policies.

Today's balloting was a mere formality, as Penrose's re-election had been decided by a caucus in which he votes in the Legislature. State Treasurer John Sheatz of Philadelphia, the choice of the anti-organization Republicans, received only twenty-three votes. The Democratic members voted for Senator George Dimling of Clearfield. It is now considered certain that George T. Oliver, the Pittsburg newspaper publisher, will be named by the Legislature to fill out the unexpired term of United States Senator Philander C. Knox, who will resign March 4 to become Secretary of State in Taft's cabinet.

It is certain that much legislation will be introduced at this session of the Legislature. The building of a State highway and a large appropriation for fighting tuberculosis and establishing sanitariums for consumptives are among the salient recommendations of Governor Stuart. All of the big bosses of Philadelphia, headed by Isreal W. Durham, are in the Senate and are taking an active

THE MISSIONARY INSTITUTE CLOSES

VERY PROFITABLE TWO DAYS' SESSION IN GAINESVILLE.

Session Was Held Under Auspices of Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Methodist Church.

(By Mrs. J. E. Futch.)

Monday Evening.

The Missionary Institute under the auspices of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the First Methodist church of Gainesville, continued its work by a splendid address from Miss Davies of Atlanta, Ga. Miss Davies is one of the national field workers in the young people societies of the Southern Methodist Church. Being a forceful and logical speaker, the great truths she uttered fell convincingly on her large audience. One of the most important thoughts suggested by her was the admonition to young people to have a purpose in life, and with it linked to God success could be expected. Some of the problems that missionary workers had to contend with seemed to be no problems at all, as this gifted, consecrated woman discussed them with that enthusiasm based on definite knowledge.

Tuesday Morning.

The session was opened with devotional exercises, Mrs. William Pepper leading. Afterward the workers seemed to have come in touch with the Divine, as the Institute had a more spiritual tone. The hour had now come for the Workers' Conference. Mrs. Lang Phifer presided with ease and dignity. The subject first under discussion was "The Weak Points in Our Auxiliary and How to Overcome Them." Miss Davies from time to time, from her large experience, gave many helpful suggestions as how to strengthen the weak points, as they were told by the different auxiliaries. After a spirited discussion by the workers, the next subject was presented by Mrs. Holland, "Finance." The church has its troubles on this line, the solution of which was the tithing of the members. All of the obligations necessary to do business for the Lord could be easily met if the tithing system prevailed.

Plans were suggested as how best to manage the raising of funds necessary when tithing was not practiced.

Mrs. F. R. Bridges led in the next discussion, "Mission Study," and in a definite way made clear that it was the informed mind who did things, and information on any subject meant study and investigation. The closing hour was drawing rapidly near, so these helpful discussions had to close. Miss Davies was asked to close with another one of her spirited talks. This time she addressed the Institute on what she thought was the weak point in nearly all of the auxiliaries; that was, the uninteresting monthly meetings. In closing she spoke highly of Gainesville and the hospitable manner in which she had been treated. Concluding, she said she was expecting great things from Gainesville.

Music by the choir was one of the very enjoyable features of the Institute.

A BAPTIST ELDER

Restored to Health by Vinol

"I was run down and weak from indigestion and general debility, also suffered from vertigo. I saw a cod liver preparation called Vinol advertised and decided to give it a trial, and the results were most gratifying. After taking two bottles I regained my strength and am now feeling unusually well." Henry Cunningham, Elder Baptist Church, Kingston, N. C.

Vinol is not a patent medicine—but a preparation composed of the medicinal elements of cods' livers, combined with a tonic iron and wine. Vinol creates a hearty appetite, tones up the organs of digestion and makes rich, red blood. In this natural manner, Vinol creates strength for the run-down, overworked and debilitated, and for delicate children and old people. For chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis Vinol is unexcelled.

All such persons in this vicinity are asked to try Vinol on our offer to refund their money if it fails to give satisfaction.

CROWDS VISIT THE CARNIVAL GROUNDS

JOHNNY J. JONES SHOWS WERE LIVELY SCENE LAST NIGHT.

The Attractions Are Novel and Interesting, and Are Doing Good Business.

Promptly at 7 o'clock last night all the various attractions with the famous Johnny J. Jones Shows were thrown open to the public, and throngs of people were out, the grounds were alive with interest, and with the roar of the lions, bands playing, and "spielers" talking, one could more than feel the influence of the occasion.

The music given by Vittucci's Royal Italian Band is one of the first thrilling delights that greets one on their arrival on the Carnival grounds, and its sweet, soothing melodies can better be understood when you have once experienced it.

The feature attraction with this great aggregation is the trained wild animal show, which carries a score of the finest specimens of Bengal tigers, African lions, leopards, Polar bears, hyenas, pumas, black bears, wolves, etc., ever seen in Gainesville. Each and every one of them are trained to perform. A delight to the little ones with this show is the six baby lions only a few weeks old.

Among the other feature attractions is the "Majestic Theatre," managed by "Osorf," which shows the transit from "Venus to Mars" and is a mystic novelty never before seen here.

"From New York to the North Pole," an exhibition recently imported from Crystal Palace, London, Eng., a panorama with electrical features that are startling in their realism, accompanied by an exceedingly instructive and entertaining lecture, drew great crowds last night.

"Marshall's Old Plantation" is another favorite attraction. It carries its own brass band and twenty-two performers and is so realistic in its portrayal of plantation scenes that we are wafted back a generation and see our country as it was "befo' de wah."

"Amy," largest lady in the world, and weighing over 600 pounds, gave receptions last night. The manager of this attraction could not open his show until after 9 p. m., as it seemed impossible to find a carriage in the city large enough to accommodate "Amy." "Amy" is only a short time in America. Her home is in Manchester, Eng., and beyond a doubt she is unquestionably a very large lady.

"Jones' Electric Palace," with a series of the latest films, is another important feature.

"Jumbo," largest snake in the world, Merry-Go-Round, Ferris Wheel, Ocean Waves and hundreds of minor attractions go to make up the largest and best exhibition ever seen in this section. They carry their own electric light plant, which is run by one of the largest and most expensive gasoline engines manufactured and travel by special palace cars.

The Johnny J. Jones Shows have a charm of their own, peculiar and distinguished, and when you once come under its spell it will hold you until long after it's close.

HANDS AND FEET ITCHED 12 YEARS

Suffered Terribly from Eczema which Made Hands and Feet Swell, Peel and Get Raw—Arms Affected, Too—Gave Up Hope of Cure.

USED CUTICURA AND WAS QUICKLY CURED

"I suffered from eczema on my hands, arms and feet for about twelve years, my hands and feet would swell, sweat and itch, then would become callous and get very dry, then peel off and get raw. I tried most every kind of salve and ointment without success, only got temporary relief. As soon as I would leave off using them I would be as bad as ever. I tried several doctors, took arsenic for two years and at last gave up thinking there was a cure for eczema. A friend of mine insisted on my trying the Cuticura Remedies but, supposing they were the same as other 'cures' I had tried, I did not give them a trial until I got so bad that I had to do something. I secured a cake of Cuticura Soap, a box of Cuticura Ointment and a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent and by the time they were used I could see a vast improvement and my hands and feet were healed up in no time. I used several bottles of Cuticura Resolvent. This was over a year ago and have had no trouble since. I think I am entirely cured. Charles T. Bauer, R.F.D. 65, Volant, Pa., Mar. 11, 1908."

PORTRAITS OF DAVIS AND LEE PRESENTED

BY KIRBY SMITH CHAPTER TO THE UNIVERSITY.

Col. Chris. Matheson Made Presentation Speech, Which Was Responded to by Dr. Andrew Sledd.

(By Dr. C. L. Crow.)

The presentation yesterday morning to the University of portraits of Jefferson Davis and of Robert E. Lee by the Kirby Smith Chapter, U. D. C., was an extremely interesting occasion. The University began at 8:30 to run free conveyances from the square to the campus, and all were well filled, so that when Mrs. J. E. Wainwright, the president of the chapter, called the meeting to order the chapel held a large audience. The ladies of the chapter occupied seats to the left of the speaker's stand, and in front to the right set the battalion of cadets in dress uniform, under command of Major Walker. Among the audience were also representatives of the J. J. Finley Chapter, U. D. C., as well as of the Confederate Camp of Veterans, and Lew Wallace Post, G. A. R.

The exercises began with an invocation by Dr. Sledd. After this Mrs. Wainwright, in a few well-chosen words, introduced Mr. Christopher Matheson, who was to make the speech of presentation. There is no need to tell the Gainesville readers of The Sun of Mr. Matheson's magnificent voice, of his pleasing appearance, and of his great oratorical power. Mr. Matheson had a great subject and he handled it fittingly.

After a graceful introduction, the speaker referred to President Davis' "Rise and Fall of the Confederate Government" as a work, written in labor and travel, to conserve the truth concerning those who went down to defeat in vain defense of the "lost cause." Then he repeated Davis' beautiful dedication of the book to the women of the Confederacy, then he showed that the women of the South were still true to their old traditions. "And it is the Daughters of the Confederacy who present these pictures today." Then the appropriateness of such a gift was lightly touched upon. The picture of Gen. Lee was especially fitted to hang on the walls of a Southern college, for Lee, "guided as ever by a sense of duty, had resolved to remain in Virginia after the war and help to rehabilitate his desolate land by teaching her young men."

"Both of our great leaders were doomed to defeat and disappointment." Then the speaker quoted from Senator Daniel's matchless eulogy of Davis.

"Dr. Palmer has reminded us that when a nation has rushed upon its fate, the whole force of the national life will sometimes shoot up in one grand character like the aloe which blooms at the end of a hundred years * * *. I regard Mr. Davis as a representative of the South, in his ardent love of freedom and of constitutional government."

The loftiness of Davis' ideas, his confidence in his fellow-countrymen, his belief in the purity of their motives were then dwelt upon. "Again Mr. Davis represented his people in his high sense of honor and his unwavering fidelity and willingness to suffer, to defend the honor of others; this was the reason he fought as long as strength was left when the soldiers attempted to place him in chains." He looked upon this treatment of himself as an insult to the Southern people. Then Mr. Matheson eulogized Lee in masterly words. He told that after Lee's death there was found in an old knapsack a slip of paper on which the General himself had written: "There is a true glory and a true honor, the glory of duty done; the honor of integrity and principle."

"I have selected this as the characteristic of General Lee to leave with you as an inspiration for higher and nobler achievements. Let us be zealous to transmit to the coming generations unstained these noble virtues."

"Learning from our noble chieftain devotion to duty and fidelity to right, harmoniously blended with Christian virtues, let us, their sons, love every inch of our country and present our lives a living sacrifice upon the altar of truth and principle."

Beville rendered in artistic style a selection on the piano.

Mrs. Wainwright then introduced Dr. Sledd, who, in the name of the University, accepted the portraits.

After thanking the ladies of the Kirby Smith Chapter for the portraits, Dr. Sledd went on to say that this was not the only way in which this chapter had manifested its interest in the young men of the University. It had founded and still maintained a scholarship, the funds from which went to defray the expenses of some deserving student, the son of a Confederate veteran, who otherwise would be unable to attend the University.

Dr. Sledd told of his early youth in Virginia when the wounds from the war had not yet been healed, and of the many lessons he had learned at his parents' knees, lessons inspired by the matchless characters of the Confederate leaders. He hoped and believed that from the University would go forth worthy descendants of those great men, "for we are not unworthy sons of worthy sires."

When Dr. Sledd had concluded Mrs. Wainwright expressed her satisfaction and delight in what had been said.

The exercises were concluded with a piano solo Mr. Peck Greene of the University, followed by a vocal solo by Mr. Kline Graham.

LARGE CROWD GATHER AT ELKS HOME FOR THE DANCE.

Many Out-of-Town Parties Present and Hall Thronged With Elite of City.

The Confederate ball given by Kirby Smith Chapter at the beautiful Elks Home on Tuesday evening was the crowning social event of the season, and many of the elite of the city took advantage of the arrangements made by the ladies for their comfort and pleasure on the closing day's entertainment.

There was no part of the arrangements left undone, and the affair proved not only a source of much enjoyment, but a financial project well engineered on the part of the members of the chapter, who raised a neat sum in this way to assist them in their scholarship work.

The home was neatly and gaily decorated for the occasion, and a large number of out-of-town people were present to participate in the dancing of the evening. The music, furnished by the home orchestra, was all that could be desired.

From a financial standpoint the receipts far exceeded the expectations of the ladies, and some purchased tickets just for the cause it represented.

A Religious Author's Statement.

For several years I was afflicted with kidney trouble and last winter I was suddenly stricken with a severe pain in my kidneys and was confined to bed eight days unable to get up without assistance. My urine contained a thick white sediment and I passed same frequently day and night. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the pain gradually abated and finally ceased and my urine became normal. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Solid Car Hogs.

A solid carload of hogs passed through the city yesterday for South Florida, where they will be butchered. This is a new way of shipping fresh meat in this section, but it stands to reason that it would prove a way for the people to get the meat fresh by doing their own butchering. The expense in handling fresh pork in this manner is not as heavy as it is by purchasing it already dressed.

The Meanest Man in Town

Is the one who always wears a frown, is cross and disagreeable, and is short and sharp in his answers. Nine cases out of ten it's not the poor fellow's fault, it's his liver and digestion that make him feel so miserable—he can't help being disagreeable. Are you in danger of getting into that condition? Then start at once taking Ballard's Herbine for your liver—the safe, sure and reliable vegetable regulator. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

For City Marshal.

I respectfully announce myself a candidate for the office of City Marshal, to be voted for at the election on April 13, 1909. If elected I will faithfully discharge the duties of the office without fear or favor. I respectfully solicit the votes of all, irrespective of party affiliation.

SPRING PARK FARM SPREADING OUT THEIR FINE STOCK.

This Company Now Selling Much Stock in All Sections of This and Other States.

Spring Park Farm, located west of the city, is fast coming into prominence for the high-class of stock they are handling and disposing of in every section.

On Tuesday they shipped a carload of assorted stock to Southwest Georgia to a large cattle ranch just being started there by Chicago capitalists, the manager of the new ranch being G. M. Henry.

The farm is located near Brinson, Ga., and the fact that they are getting their stock from the Spring Park Farm denotes that we have the best blooded stock to be found in the South.

This car is only one among a number that Manager Callison is now getting out to buyers and he has other interested parties whom he expects to hear from within a short while.

This is a common form of muscular rheumatism. No internal treatment is needed. Apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely twice a day and a quick cure is certain. This liniment has proven especially valuable for muscular and chronic rheumatism, and is sure to give quick relief. Chamberlain's Liniment is also most excellent for sprains and bruises. Witty Sayings.

W. S. Gilbert said of Beerbohm Tree's Hamlet that it was "funny without being coarse."

During an Englishman's lecture in New Haven the usher said to a late comer: "Please, sir, take your seat as quietly as possible. The audience is asleep."

A Philadelphia woman said: "Of course there will be no marriage in heaven. There will be plenty of women there and a few men, but none any one would care to marry."

Spoiled by the Cook.

Cardinal Manning, the famous English churchman, was gaunt of face. The great ecclesiastic's appearance was so ascetic that he seemed to have been almost starved. Once in Liverpool he visited a convent, and the cook knelt to him for a blessing, which she got.

"May the Lord preserve your eminence," said she, and then, looking at his thin face, she added, "and, oh, may God forgive your cook!"

Stomach Trouble Cured.

If you have any trouble with your stomach you should take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Mr. J. P. A FACT PROVEN.

Should Convince Even the Most Skeptical of Its Truth.

If there is the slightest doubt in the minds of any that Dandruff germs do not exist, their belief is compelled by the fact that a rabbit innoculated with the germs became bald in six weeks' time.

It must be apparent to any person therefore that the only prevention of baldness is the destruction of the germ—which act is successfully accomplished in one hundred per cent. of cases by the application of Newbro's Herpicide.

Dandruff is caused by the same germ which causes baldness and can be prevented with the same remedy—Newbro's Herpicide.

Accept no substitute. "Destroy the cause you remove the effect."

A ROYAL DESPOT.

Wurttemberg Prince Who Sold His Subjects Like Cattle.

Cruel and despotic were some of the petty princes who ruled the fatherland before the Napoleonic wars swept them away. Charles Eugene of Wurttemburg, born in 1728, died in 1793 and during his sixty-five years of life tormented his parents, his wives and his subjects. His first consort, Fredericka of Beyreuth, was worthy of him. When entering Wurttemberg soon after their marriage the girls threw masses of flowers in front of them. "What do those dogs want?" the princess asked her husband. They were always quarreling and never spoke to each other without snarling. The prince was always short of money and sold 6,000 of his subjects to England to raise the wind. He took the poor wretches from the fields, clapped a uniform on them and sent them to their destination as if they were cattle. Once he called all the young men of a certain district before him and made the following speech: "My brave boys, do you want to go to fight in the ranks of the English heroes against the savages of the continent?" No reply was made for the moment. Then a number of the youths stepped forward, and one of them said, "We do not want to be sold like sheep." The prince promptly gave orders for two of them to be seized, put against a wall and shot at once. Then while the blood was running from the mutilated bodies of the two unfortunates the prince by divine right said: "Run away. You see I do not want to impose my will on you. I think of your welfare like a father does of his children. You want to fight by the side of the valorous English." All consented. Schiller heard his father tell this story, and he himself related it in a scene of one of his plays.

Phil May's Drawings.

The late Phil May was popularly supposed to be the "lightning artist" par excellence of England. It is quite true that he could draw many wonderful things "straight off." But when a subject had been chosen for a Punch illustration many drawings were made from a model or models who first had to be discovered. By a process of selection each drawing of the subject bore fewer lines. When the drawing was published most of those who looked at it thought that it had been done with a few rapid strokes of the pen, whereas it probably represented a week's hard work.—London News.

WHEEZER OR SNEEZER?

Have You Heard of Hyomei for Catarrh, Asthma and Hay Fever.

If you wheeze or sneeze, hawk or spit, snuffle or blow, something is the matter with the membrane of your respiratory tract, and you need Hyomei.

And you need Hyomei because it will cure you of any catarrhal or inflammatory condition that exists.

It isn't a stomach medicine, or spray, or douche, but a very pleasant, healing, antiseptic balsam, from the eucalyptus forests of Australia. You breathe this balsam air through a small, hardy rubber inhaler, and it reaches every nook, corner and crevice of the membrane, and promptly kills the catarrh germs.

J. W. McCollum & Co. will sell you a complete Hyomei (pronounced High-o-me) outfit for $1.00, on the money-back plan.

"The use of Hyomei cured Mr. Cutler of catarrh in 1904. He has strongly endorsed the use of Hyomei in many instances, and we are glad to go on record regarding this marvelous catarrh cure and endorsing its use."—Mrs. A. Cutler, 201 Post avenue, Battle Creek, Mich., Oct. 12, 1908.

Are All Advertised Medicines Fakes?

As well ask "Are all doctors quacks?" or "Are all lawyers shysters?" We all know there are ignorant quacks; does that prevent anyone calling in his good, old family physician in case of need and trusting him? There are shysters, but there are also honorable lawyers to whom we confidently trust our lives and fortunes.

There are fake medicines advertised; but they are not fakes because they are advertised. A good thing is worth advertising; we all want to know about it. The more a bad thing is advertised, the worse for it in the end.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is no fake; yet it is advertised; it advertises itself; and those who have used it are its best advertisers, and that free of cost.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has proved its merit by more than thirty years general use. This simple, old-fashioned remedy, made from roots and herbs, has become the standard medicine for ailments peculiar to women,—its fame is world-wide.

Read this plain, honest statement of what the medicine did for one woman; her own words; if you doubt, write and ask her.

Chester, Ark.—"I used to think I had no use for patent medicines and would not read the advertisements. I think now if I had I would have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and saved myself years of suffering. I had suffered from female troubles for twenty years, and when Change of Life came I grew worse. I got so nervous I could not sleep nights and could hardly get around—I suffered agonies.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended and it helped me so much that I continued its use, and I am so well that I feel like a different person. My advice to all suffering women is to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. Ella Wood.

The makers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have thousands of such letters—they tell the truth, else they could not have been obtained for love or money. This medicine is no plausible stranger—it has stood the test of years.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

If the slightest trouble appears which you do not understand, write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for her advice—it is free and always helpful.

TELEPHONE TALKS

The Long Distance System

One of the most valuable features of our service, to our subscribers and to the public generally, is our connection with the extensive long distance lines of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and the other associated Bell Telephone companies.

We own thousands of miles of long distance lines in the seven States in which we operate and in addition can connect any telephone in our system with lines extending to any other city in which a Bell Telephone system is operated.

These long distance lines are of the most modern and improved construction and are maintained at a high state of efficiency. The Bell systems, operating in various sections of the country, are uniform in their equipment and in their methods of operating.

Only by reason of this close traffic arrangement between the Bell Telephone companies is it possible to go to a Bell Telephone almost anywhere, ask for "Long Distance" and be put in communication with almost any point in the country.

This vast network of wires, radiating throughout the nation, is used daily in commerce and for social purposes by the banker, the farmer and citizens in all walks of life and our plant here is an important link in this great chain.

BLUE LAWS AND BLUE PEOPLE.

(Atlanta Constitution.)

The eyes of all America are focussed just now with an amused interest on the Florida city of Pensacola, where there is under way a determined attempt to enforce the "blue laws" as they were enacted in all their vigor fifty years ago.

At this juncture, the authorities and the blue laws have all the best of the controversy. Business men have been unceremoniously "pinched" for opening their mail on Sunday, the soft drink establishments have closed up with a bang on the Sabbath, and the only thing that restrains the sheriff from putting a ban on trolley traffic is that the city attorney has designated it as a "necessity of life."

The affair has, of course, its own humor, but is also not without a serious phase. Statutes of this stringency are a survival of the era when the country was more or less infested with Puritanism. Men then took literally the Biblical injunction regarding the ox in the ditch. They conceived it to be their duty to make their neighbors religious, nolens volens, that inevitable human officiousness with respect to the affairs of others and the tendency to monopolize to one human theory all virtues being then in the ascendant.

We have widened out as to soul and mind since those days, and we are speedily arriving at the knowledge that men are not made holy by statute or precept, but by example and by teachings that persuade the soul without doing violence to the intellect.

No indications are uppermost that America, or the southern part of it at least, would sanction or permit the laxity of an European Sunday. In a majority of the Southern cities, for example, these so-called "blue laws" have been obsolete for full half a century. People enjoy their Sabbaths in a quiet, reverential and orderly manner, and men do not seem poorer Christians for the fact that they can buy on Sunday a cigar or a glass of soda water.

It is an inviolable law of human nature, supported by history that is ancient as well as amusingly modern, that no statute is stronger than community sentiment. History shows also the tragic monumental error of religion by coercion. Blue laws, or those condemned by that preponderating religious sentiment that does not lose sight of the factor of progress, make a blue people. What is more, they promote that which the liturgy especially cautions us against—hypocrisy, "envy, hatred and all uncharitableness."

In both the near East and far East matters remain in an unsettled condition and are the cause of anxiety to other countries. In the Balkans the reassuring outlook of one day is offset the next by disquieting rumors, and as the winter is slipping by fast and no settlement of the various questions directly involving Turkey, Austria, Bulgaria and Servia is in sight, there is grave danger of hostilities in the spring. In China the dismissal of the reform prime minister causes much uneasiness among the foreign legations, inasmuch as the action betrays a reactionary sentiment which is always hostile to foreigners.

Frank A. Vanderlip, who has been elected president of the National City Bank of New York, the biggest bank on this continent, began life for himself as a newspaper reporter. This is evidence of the fact that opportunity has not passed for industrious young men to rise in the commercial world. All ambitious young men have to do is their duty, and the opportunities will find them.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The Washington Herald says: "The South Carolina Legislature's ringing and cordial indorsement of Senator Tillman didn't attract very much attention outside of the State. You must denounce eminent personages if you want the news spread from one end of the country to the other nowadays."

The Norfolk Landmark says: "California should not be hasty in stirring up Japanese antagonism, but she has a right to pass any law that is constitutional, and Japan has no more right to protest than this country would have under similar conditions. Why should the Japanese make a great fuss about a California law prohibiting the ownership of land in that State by Asiatics, when Japan herself forbids the ownership of land by Americans?"

The Washington Post says: "One feature of this (the Hains) case which will strike those who insist upon law and order is the utter contempt of law displayed by men when they carry arms. They certainly do not carry weapons for purposes other than to do injury to the people who may oppose them. For some inexplicable reason the carriers of deadly weapons do not prejudice themselves in the eyes of the ordinary jury. This is something that requires explanation. It has come to the point where the man who totes the revolver should be punished for that offense. He seems to be safe from punishment for using his weapon."

The choosing of a capital for a nation is of rare occurrence, but when the step becomes necessary it is by no means easy, and generally causes friction. This country wrestled with the question for quite a time and nearly half a century ago Canada had the same experience. The commonwealth of Australia have just settled upon their capital after a good deal of heart burning, and in so doing have followed the American precedent of selecting a tract of land which shall bear the same relation to the other States of the commonwealth as the District of Columbia does to the various States of the Union. It is said that in every particular the tract chosen is admirably adapted for its purpose. Now the Australians are uncertain what name to give it.

"The Winning of the South," by William Howard Taft, promises to be quite as interesting a volume as "The Winning of the West" by Theodore Roosevelt.

and you will save yourself a lot of suffering and trouble. If you have a sudden chill—or take cold—if you have colic, cramp or diarrhoea, don't wait a minute. Take at once a teaspoonful of Perry Davis' Painkiller in a half a glass of hot water or milk. You'll be safe and on the right road to quick recovery. Then you'll escape serious illness. But you ought to have this tried and proven remedy on hand for immediate use. Being prepared is half the battle when there's pain to subdue. New size bottles 35c., also in 50-cent sizes.

—THE—

University City.

Gainesville is conceded to be the most enterprising as well as the most beautiful city in the interior of Florida. It is located in the very center of the State, half way between the Atlantic and Gulf Coasts, surrounded by lands of such fertility as to be capable of producing a great variety of crops; in the heart of the truck-growing, phosphate and naval stores belt. She has the best educational advantages in the State, good churches, with edifices which are superior to any town of its size in Florida, with large and consistent congregations; has a climate which cannot be excelled for health and pleasure. All these natural advantages, combined with a progressive and enterprising cosmopolitan citizenship, are sure to make a big city.

There are many natural attractions in close proximity to the city, some of which are Alachua Sink, Paine's Prairie, the Devil's Mill Hopper, Warren's Cave, and Lake Newnan, all of which are reached by private conveyance.

Spring Park Stock Farm, the largest and finest live stock farm in the State, is only eight miles west of the city and is reached by a good hard road, affording a most pleasant drive.

The farmers of Alachua county, of which Gainesville is the county seat, "live at home and board at the same place." The temperature is very uniform, scarcely ever reaching the nineties in summer or the twenties in winter. The population of Gainesville is about eight thousand, representing nearly every nationality on the face of the earth, and strangers always meet with a hearty welcome.

The University of Florida for young men and the National Agricultural Experiment Station are located within the corporate limits of the city. In fact, Gainesville has so many things that we must be pardoned if we omit a few of them in the following enumeration of what

EFFORT BY PROXY.

Involuntary Attempts to Help Athletes at Exciting Moments.

In pictures of athletic competitions, chiefly hurdle races and high jumps, an occasional spectator is seen in a queer posture.

If it is a picture of an athlete leaping, ten chances to one the spectator has involuntarily raised his right leg, twisting his body in automatic expression of a desire to help the jumper. With hurdle race photographs this often may be noticed, too, and in the case of sprinters not a few men stand with faces twisted up and holding the breath in correct imitation of the athlete actually competing.

So, too, with football views. In one of a big game there was a photograph of a man on the side line watching a tackle who was crouching down in almost exact imitation of a waiting defense man who was shown at the moment making ready for his leap at the runner.

Men who follow athletics know how involuntary this is. One athletic trainer has appeared in hundreds of pictures as watching some one of his charges high jumping, with his leg swung out just as if he were making the leap himself. There is a sort of relief for the feeling of trying to help the jumper in swinging the leg up so, and almost any person is likely to find himself doing it instinctively.

It may be noticed at prizefights that some men go through the entire battle punch for punch, crossing and countering an imaginary opponent as they watch the struggle before them. Men drive and ride horses in races from the stand, making the effort in the stretch along with the jockey of their fancy. This is one of the well known features among the race crowd where there are many "grand stand riders." In wrestling matches almost any one will try, purely by instinct, to help the athlete who is down and who is bridging desperately to avoid the fall.

And yet there is rarely enough telepathic suggestion in the air surcharged with desire to bring about a result different from what naturally might be expected at the moment when the greatest wish for something else is born—that is to say, the high jumper doesn't necessarily clear the bar, nor the sprinter squeeze out the inch or so that he needs, nor the jockey whip his mount in for the head that means victory.—Washington Post.

The Pure Food Law.

Secretary Wilson says: "One of the objects of the law is to inform the consumer of the presence of certain harmful drugs in medicines." The law requires that the amount of chloroform, opium, morphine, and other habit-forming drugs be stated on the label of each bottle. The manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy have always claimed that their remedy did not contain any of these drugs, and the truth of this claim is now fully proven, as no mention of them is made on the label. This remedy is not only one of the safest, but one of the best in use for coughs and colds. Its value has been proven beyond question during the many years it has been in general use. For sale by all druggists.

Eugene Sue's Vanity.

Notwithstanding the extraordinary literary success which he enjoyed when his works were the vogue, Eugene Sue posed much more as a man of fashion than a man of letters. After his dinner at the Cafe de Paris he would gravely stand on the steps smoking his cigar and listening to the conversation with an air of superiority without attempting to take part in it. His mind was supposed to be far away, devising schemes for the social and moral improvement of his fellow creatures. These philanthropic musings did not prevent him from paying a great deal of attention—too much perhaps—to his personal appearance, for even in those days of beaus, bucks and dandies, of Counts d'Orsay and others, men could not help thinking Eugene Sue overdressed.

Don't Take the Risk.

When you have a bad cough or cold do not let it drag along until it becomes chronic bronchitis, or develops into an attack of pneumonia, but give it the attention it deserves and get rid of it. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and you are sure of prompt relief. From a small beginning the sale and use of this preparation has extended to all parts of the United States and to many foreign countries. Its many remarkable cures of coughs and colds have won for it this wide reputation and extensive use. Sold by all druggists.

RULE OF THE ROAD.

A London Policeman Explained the Matter Very Clearly.

"The first day in England," says an American traveler, "my heart jumped into my throat several times. Riding on top of a bus, the driver would always turn toward the left when we were about to pass another vehicle, and, although I knew that that was the English custom, I held on tight and got shivers anticipating a collision every time. One morning I stepped up to a policeman at King's Cross to get my bearings, and, as he was disposed to be talkative, I kept him company.

"Among other things, I asked him whether there was any rule requiring pedestrians to keep to the left. No, he told me; it was only for the roadway that the rule held.

"I then asked him why it was that in England they always turned to the left, whereas in all other countries the rule was to turn to the right.

"'Oh, it's very important to keep to the left,' he said seriously. I knew it was very important to observe the rule of the road, but why turn to the left?

"'Well,' he said, 'I'll show you. Now you come here,' and he led me to the middle of the roadway. 'You see,' he continued, 'how the traffic moves along the two sides of the road?'

"Yes, I saw, and a pretty sight it was, too—a string of all sorts of conveyances coming toward us on our right and another moving away from us on the left as far as the eye could see.

"'Well, now'—and he was very impressive—'suppose you were driving along in the middle here and another kerrige was coming the other w'y, and suppose you turned to the right, don't you see you would be getting in the w'y of all those vehicles?'

"Yes, I saw that.

"'Well, that's why we always turn to the left.'

"I learned afterward that the 'bobby' expected a tip for all the information he had given me."—Youth's Companion.

Fever Sores.

Fever sores and old chronic sores should not be healed entirely, but should be kept in healthy condition. This can be done by applying Chamberlain's Salve. This salve has no superior for this purpose. It is also most excellent for chapped hands, sore nipples, burns and diseases of the skin. For sale by all druggists.

Remarkable Story

The story of Mrs. Matilda Warwick, of Kokomo, Ind., as told below, proves the curative properties of that well-known female remedy, Wine of Cardui. Mrs. Warwick says:

TAKE CARDUI

It Will Help You

"I suffered from pains in my head, shoulders limbs, side stomach low down, dizziness, chills, nervousness, fainting spells and other female troubles. I was almost dead. Three doctors did not help me. At last, I took Cardui, and with the first bottle obtained relief. Now I am cured. But for Cardui, I would have been dead." Try Cardui.

An Old Idea.

Macaulay was not the first man to frame the famous image of the man of a new civilization standing amid the ruins of that which we know today. Long before he wrote of his traveler from New Zealand meditating upon London bridge Mrs. Barbauld had used the same image, with the difference that she applied it to Blackfriars bridge. An earlier reviewer had used it in an article published in 1767, we are told by an English commentator, and Horace Walpole says in one of his letters, "At last some curious traveler from Lima will visit England and give a description of the ruins of St. Paul's."

The Perfect Woman.

There is a quaint old tavern sign in Kent, "The Perfect Woman"—a woman's head without a mouth. This signboard was once quite common, and as late as 1818 a "silent woman" stood in St. Giles', in what is now New Oxford street, bearing beneath the picture of a headless female the following stanza:

A silent woman—how can it be?
Patient traveler, do not scoff.
Drawn from the very life is she
And mute because her head is off.
